To-day is children's day again, all children being admitted to the fair free.

No charge is made to-day for private carriages and vehicles to the fair grounds.

Some of the best sport of the week is promised at the Driving Park this afternoon.

The Walnut Bureau is beginning to agitate the old question of dividing the county.

Meeting of the Young Men's Republican club again last night, at Sims' & Cadwell's office.

The contract to furnish the county with fifty tons of coal was let to W. M. Wallace, as his bid was the lowest.

The amphitheatres are to be thrown open free this afternoon to all on the fair grounds who want to see the races.

The Congregationalists arranged for a social at the residence of Mr. James Brewster, on Glen avenue last evening.

Republican mass meeting to-night at Bloom & Nixon's hall. General Sherman and General Prentiss will both speak.

A young son of John Epeneter made good time at the roller skating rink Thursday evening and scored two tumbles and a sprained arm.

Mr. James Templeton, brother of John Templeton of this city, was badly hurt by falling from a train on the Hannibal and St. Joe road.

The county board completed its labors yesterday forenoon and adjourned. The fellow who did not present his bill in time must now wait and grumble for three months.

Dr. Bellinger, who has served acceptably the past year as county physician and surgeon, has been re-elected by the county board to the position, he being the lowest bidder.

Eighteen car loads of Mormons, in two trains, were brought in over the Northwestern road and forwarded to Utah Thursday night. Mormonism seems to be on the increase.

One little girl who held a programme of the races said to her companion, "Now we will see the charity race." "That isn't a charity race, it is a carrot race, you goose," replied No. 2.

The Daniah band, of Harlan, who came here to play for the dance given by the Danesh society, disposed of their musical instruments here and have ordered a new set, fine ones, too.

At St. Joseph's academy yesterday Master Michael Riski received the silver medal offered by Prof. Slattery for good conduct and assiduity in study, the recipient holding it subject to competition.

A. B. Walker and N. P. Dodge & Co. bought some land at tax sale, and paid therefor some taxes that were erroneously assessed, and the county board granted the petition to refund the money thus paid.

The Herald gives the credit of the music at the fair to the Union Pacific band of Omaha, while the Harmony band has been playing at the grounds since Tuesday. Honor to whom honor is due.

The Wahash road is selling first-class limited tickets to Chicago at $9.30, a cut of $5 from the pool rate. The C. M. & St. Paul tickets can be had at the same rates from scalpers. Looks like a small war cloud.

C. E. Humbert, of Corning, who has had four of his fine imported stallions on exhibition at the fair here, returned home with his horses last evening having received first premium in every class in which he showed.

"To be, or not to be, that is the question." Spiritual Circle tomorrow (Sunday) afternoon and evening, rooms Nos. 4 and 5, Shugart & Bros' block, at 2 and 7:30 o'clock. A general invitation is given to investigators.

At its last session yesterday morning the county board voted to accept the proposition of the Union Pacific Railroad company to pay $1,500 for the interest of the county in the bridge across Indian creek on Union avenue.

W. T. Brown, the genial proprietor of the European restaurant, has suffered for a week past with a very sore finger, caused by a slight scratch in which he caught cold. It has been pretty serious but is now nearly healed.

The Democratic County Central Committee has organized by the election of Col. Tam as president, John J. Frainey secretary, and the executive committee, W. H. M. Pusey, Col. J. S. Tam, M. Keating and Thos. Bowman.

The county clerk rarely refuses his permission, when a loving couple ask the privilege of being permitted to wed. Howard Crofts and Helen Hanford, of Avoca, applied for and received permission, as did also David Welch and Maggie Flagbarger, of this city.

It is confidently predicted that Sailor Boy will beat 2:18 this afternoon, and there are numerous ones anxious to back up this opinion by money, but not many takers. Sailor Boy has shown up considerably inside of 2:18 before, and with $500 hung up before his nose he will do his best, and all may expect the finest showing of speed ever seen on the track here.

J. C. Hunt wanted an abatement of an assessment of his personal property. There are plenty of men who would like their assessments abated. But this application was not made on general principles, but he claimed that some cattle assessed to him did not belong to him. The County Board refused to grant his petition. There seems to be a difference of opinion about those cattle.

FRIDAY'S FUN.

A Crowd to See It at the Driving Park.

Will Benham and Anglin the Winners.
 Sailor Boy to Pace Against 2:18 To-Day.

Other Rare Sport on To-Day's Programme.

The fair yesterday proved a continued success. The opening of the day proved threatening by clouds and dampness, but the skies brightened up, and the crowd began gathering early in the afternoon, and before the races were started there were several thousand present.

Those who have been across the river looking at the state fair in Omaha pronounce the display there in many respects better than here, but Council Bluffs was ahead in the number and speed of track horses. The fruit show here is acknowledged to be far ahead of either Des Moines or Omaha. The other departments have fair displays but not so markedly superior to other fairs as the fruit show is.

The exposition building has been daily thronged throughout the week, the displays there being very attractive. Mueller, the music dealer had a large and fine display of instruments occupying the center of the exposition building, Metcalf Bros. sharing the rotunda booth with him, and making a very creditable and attractive showing of hats, caps, gloves, furs, etc. Casady & Orcutt occupied a prominent place, and made such a display of carpets and curtains as was to be expected from a house standing at the front in their line. Harkness Bros' display was also good though not so extensive.

C. A. Beebe & Co. had some fine furniture, and other merchants displayed various goods, making quite a varied and pleasing showing of merchandise.

There was a showing up of stock yesterday forenoon which attracted much attention as they were led around and eyed by judges. George F. Wright's mare captured a ribbon and M. F. Rohrer's gelding was decorated by three, one as the best for general purposes, one as the best gelding under the saddle, and one as the fast walker. Col. Sapp got a large number of first premiums on his stock. Mr. Teynor also won honors on some of his stock.

A good joke is told on the committee who had the awarding of premiums on horses. One exhibitor showed up some Schweitzer cheese, pronounced by the committee to be very fine, but the committee, not being familiar with that kind and taking it as ordinary cheese, were horrified at the peculiar smell and taste and pronounced the cheese too horrible to consider at all and the Schweitzer went without a friend or ribbon. There is no knowing how badly the committee would have been exhibited if any Lieberger had been exhibited. The mistake was discovered and rectified after a time and the Schweitzer exhibitor had his wrath cooled down by a satisfactory explanation.

Some tall stalks of corn were shown up as grown by Mr. McCord, of Davenport. They were 17 feet tall, and the corn is of the Kentucky variety.

THE RACES.

There was a good sized crowd out again in the afternoon to see the races, filling one amphitheater and a goodly number of seats in the other. The Harmony band again furnished music.

The programme furnished for the afternoon's sport was a good one, but a still better one is offered to-day, and many who could not attend both days' races, forewent the pleasure, preferring to attend to-day.

THE 2:34 RACE

opened very tamely. There were two starters, Anglin and Columbus. The latter took the pole and led from beginning to finish. Both horses broke badly, Anglin on the first quarter being brought nearly to a stand still before getting on his feet. This gave Columbus a big lead, but Anglin gathered himself up so as to cut down the gap, till at the finish there was only a trace of daylight between them. Time, 2:31.

The second heat was very tame. At the quarter, Anglin took the lead and pulled steadily away, being several lengths ahead and keeping there, Columbus being off his feet a good deal. Anglin jogged in the winner of the heat, 2:30.

The third heat was very tame. Anglin kept the lead, followed clear around by Columbus, the horses steady to the finish, when Columbus coming up a little too fast, went off his feet, Anglin winning the heat in 2:35.

The fourth heat and the race was won easily by Anglin. Columbus broke badly on every quarter, and was off his feet much of the time, and the time made created little enthusiasm. The heat was trotted in 2:32.

SUMMARY.

2:34-Trotting. Purse $400.
 J. F. Gilbert's, g. Anglin..... 2 1 1 1
 John W. Russell's, g. Columbus..... 1 2 2 2
 Time, 2:31, 2:30, 2:35, 2:32.

THE CHARIOT RACE.

This caused, as on previous days, much enthusiasm. Miss Burke kept the lead most of the distance, but Beardley's team came in winners. Time, 2:02.

THE 2:23 TROT.

In this there were only two starters—Big Soap and Will Benham—the latter taking the pole.

The first heat was pretty evenly contested. Will Benham went to the front on the second-off, but at the quarter Big Soap got up to his wheel, but then broke, and at the half was two lengths behind. He then got down to business and closed the gap, and the two were neck and neck until just before they reached the home-made up much that he lost, so that while Benham passed under the wire while Big Soap's nose was on his wheel. Time, 2:27.

In the next heat there was a little more interest awakened. It was very neatly trotted, Will Benham keeping the lead to the three-quarter pole, with Big Soap close onto him, but just as the close contest came on the home stretch Big Soap went off his feet, but caught quickly, and then Benham went off and staid off, Big Soap coming in steadily the winner in 2:24.

In the third heat Will Benham on the first quarter got the pole, and Big Soap pushing up the two kept in snug quarters, traveling closely and steadily till the finish, Benham winning by a neck. Time, 2:25.

The fourth proved the deciding one, and it was the noisiest heat of all. Benham led to the quarter and from there to the home stretch the horses went nose and nose most of the way, but Benham passed under the wire about a neck ahead, winning the heat and race in 2:24, the best time of the day.

SUMMARY.

2:23-Trotting. $500.
 John W. Russell, g. Will Benham. 1 2 1 1
 John Glenn, h. g. Big Soap..... 2 1 2 2
 Time 2:27, 2:24, 2:25, 2:24.

TOO GOOD TO LET GO.

The attendance has been so large, the display so fine and the track horses so numerous and speedy that it has been decided to continue the meeting to-day, and the best of all has been saved to the last of the feast. The programme for to-day is a sensational one indeed.

There will be the following events:
 Trot in the 2:30 class, purse $400, three to start; entries closed at 8 o'clock last evening.

Sailor Boy will pace against time to beat 2:18 for a purse of $500. Sailor Boy won the big free-for-all pacing race on Tuesday, making 2:22, which was the fastest mile ever paced over the Council Bluffs track. Billy Scott will accompany Sailor Boy.

Running race, half mile and repeat, in which entries closed last evening at 8 o'clock, which will be a stake race.

A chariot race and an Indian warriors' race for a bride. Also during the afternoon Mrs. Burke will appear in a race accompanied by a number of trained dogs.

In the 2:30 class for to-day there are entered Charles G. Hayes, Annie Lou, Lucy B. and McMahon's.

In the half mile and repeat, Lucy Johnson, Black Bill, Bee's Wing and Kate B.

The above programme is a fine one, and a large crowd will doubtless be present.

THE BOSS GIRL.

By special request, and owing to the impossibility of the arrival of Bill Nye, the presentation of the $75 sewing machine to the "Boss Girl" has been postponed until 2 o'clock to-day, when it will positively be awarded the best girl.

To-day the amphitheatres are to be thrown open free to all who attend.

All private carriages are to be admitted free.

Children under fifteen are also to be admitted free to the grounds to-day.

Special bargains in new and second hand furniture offered by Mandel during fair week.

Remember you can save money by buying boots and shoes at the corner of Main street and First avenue.

See the blankets, bed comforters, table linen, bed spreads, etc., at Casady & Orcutt's house furnishing store.

Yesterday morning was laid away to rest all that was mortal of the bright little one year old daughter of Mr. Ed. Olsson and wife. This is the last of seven who have been sent and remained but a short time to the home of the now sorrowing parents. Several floral tributes were left at the residence on Madison street. Among the most beautiful were those sent by Mrs. N. P. Dodge and Mrs. Marshall Key. The sympathy of many friends is extended in this hour of dark bereavement.

A little fellow, claiming to hail from St. Louis, turned up here yesterday, telling rather a hard story of how he had been used by a step-father in that city. The boy had been selling newspapers, and the old man, who abused him badly enough before, grew still worse in his treatment after his mother's death. The boy could stand the old man's getting drunk, but when it came to taking his newspaper money for drink, and then on getting sober whaling the boy for having lost it, he could stand it no longer, and ran away. He says the contractors let him ride through to here, and he was trying to get from here to Chariton, where he has an aunt living.

Yesterday forenoon Chief Field arrested Pat Hanlon, a burly farmer, made still more burly by bad whisky. After being put in the back room of the police station, Hanlon tried to knock the door off its hinges, and the Chief went in to change him into the dark cell. Hanlon pitched into him fiercely, but the Chief downed him, and held him till he begged for mercy, and then let him up. No sooner was Hanlon on his feet than he struck the Chief a heavy blow, raising a welt on his forehead and breaking off the skin a little. The Chief then struck him with a billy, knocking him out of time, cutting his head, and making him wilt. Hanlon was then placed in the dark cell and given a better chance to sober up.

THE BOSS RESTAURANT.

Bechtel's new European restaurant, which opened this week, has had a rush of business, and yet, with Ed. Olsson, the well known caterer, managing affairs, the patrons have been more than delighted at the promptness and attentiveness in serving, and the excellence of the cooking. No city now affords a better restaurant than this new one of Bechtel's, which has opened so auspiciously, and it is already assumed success, with every indication of an increasing patronage. The best in the market is to be found on its tables always, and its patrons can always have just what they want, and pay only for what they want, and that at reasonable prices.
